Wars, Trauma, Migrations and Global Mental Health for refugees in Developed countries and in Developing countries for civil populations and refugees: what innovations in the treatment, in mediation, conflict management and human rights
PRE-PROGRAM THEMES & TOPICS:
Please use this list of themes and topics to choose and adapt your presentation, it is only a help for speakers and attendees to view the scope of this conference:

I. Epidemiology, Assessment, Diagnosis and Treatment plan for refugees:
   1. Assessment, Diagnosis and Treatment plan for refugees
   2. Trauma of war and addictive behaviors with substances and also traffic and circulation of narcotics among refugees, Treatment plan and Prevention.
   3. Community versus clinical treatment in the early interventions in prevention of PTSD and other related stress disorders for victims and survivors
   4. Qualitative and quantitative research and Development of new scales for psychiatric assessment for refugees
   5. Complex PTSD, dissociation and long term treatment for victims and survivors
   6. Neuro-biological and Neuroimaging of Trauma brain before and after PTDS recovery
   7. Trauma and Psychosis, transcultural aspects in the treatment of refugees and migrants
   8. Biomarkers and Psychopharmacology of victims and survivors of Wars Trauma
   9. Transfer of field knowledge and experience between the North and the South on research and support for traumatized populations
   10. Community Programs for new migrants and refugees
   11. Sexual deviations, sexual abuse and post-traumatic stress disorder among the war victims
   12. Comparative studies between type of trauma and post-traumatic clinical futures, transcultural aspects.
   13. Psychopharmacological and psychosocial Support for Wars’ trauma victims
   14. Psychopharmacological and psychosocial Support for victims of sexual abuse in the war context
   15. Cross-Cultural aspects of psycho-trauma and treatment plan and psychosocial integration of the victims into the community
   16. war trauma and torture in liaison psychiatry, clinical experiences and best practices
   17. Traumatic brain injury and PTSD among refugees’ victims of torture and war trauma
   18. Migration, Global mental Health and liaison psychiatry in Switzerland and Europe
   19. Complex PTSD in Psychosomatic medicine, Transcultural aspects
II. Trauma, Anxiety and Stress related disorders and migration:

1. Trauma, Anxiety and Stress related disorders among the refugees and war victims
2. Trauma of war and addictive behaviors with substances and also traffic and circulation of narcotics among refugees. Treatment plan and Prevention.
3. Impact of Internet and TV exposure to traumatic events in refugee families, a Challenge for diagnosis according to DSM-V.
4. Trauma, anxiety and stress-related disorders in the life of refugees (Children , adult and old age)
5. Wars, Mass Trauma and its impact in the general population mental health
6. PTSD and Personality Disorders a transcultural aspect among refugees versus general population
7. PTSD and psychiatric comorbidities a transcultural aspects
8. Chronic pain, Depression and Trauma among refugees and non-refugees
9. Trauma, Memory and Dissociation in migrants and refugees
10. Psychotraumatology and Psycho-Immunology (impact of psychological trauma on immune defense), transcultural aspects and psychosomatic medicine
11. Trauma and Suicide risks among adolescents among refugees and non-refugees
12. Addiction, Trauma and posttraumatic stress disorder among refugees and non-refugees
13. Transcultural aspects of posttraumatic stress disorder
14. Types of traumatic events during the war and post-traumatic psychiatric disorders
15. Trauma, Anxiety, Depression and Migration: risk factors, management and prevention
16. Domestic violence and post-traumatic psychiatric disorders among refugees and non-refugees
17. Assessments, Diagnosis and Treatment of Sleep Disorders in PTSD and Trauma related disorders among refugees
18. Nightmares and Bad dreams among Refugees and Victims of war, torture and terrorism, a Neurocognitive Model of Dreaming and Treatment
III. Innovation in Improving Global mental health in humanitarian and international medicine:

1. Innovation in Improving Global mental health in humanitarian and international medicine with the use of new renewable energy (NRE) and information and communication technologies (ICT)

2. Innovation in humanitarian international networking with medical professionals, engineers and technologists to improve the global mental health of refugees and populations in the developing countries where the real needs are.

3. Using the mass media to improve mental health and remove stigma of war victims (child soldiers, soldiers, veterans, children and adolescents, refugees, etc.)

4. Innovation in networking with institutions, humanitarian organizations, NGOs and governments in the management of migration flows of refugees in the countries or regions in political crises or armed conflicts

5. Impact of War and Terrorism on Global mental health of Militaries, Police, Emergency Services and Health and Humanitarian professionals

6. Innovation in Networking and Research in humanitarian action

7. International Humanitarian Medicine, a challenge for global health with the migratory flow of refugees victims of war trauma

8. Innovation in the integration of mediation and conflict management in the medical and psychosocial care of migrants victims of multiple abuses

9. Innovation in the use of social mediation in academic and professional circles for the integration of refugees victims of multiple abuses

10. Innovations in hospitality, care and psychosocial support in masses of refugees, victims of war trauma, the challenge of Canada

11. What Innovations in assessment, diagnostics and care of women and children victims of rape and sexual abuse during wars?
IV. Policies and Assistance Program for sustainable development for the prevention and conflict managements while implanting global health projects:

1. Causes of the great migrations of the 21st century in the world and their impact on global public health and sustainable development
2. Social therapy a new approach for care and prevention of violence behaviors among the war victims, families and communities
3. Innovation and Strategy for opening the Centre of Psychotraumatology and Mediation (CPM) by the Institute of Psychotraumatology and Mediation (IPM-International) in collaborations with institutions and associations in orders to limit flow disorganized and dangerous migrations of war victims
4. The importance of cultural resilience in the process of healing and reconciliation in communities affected by mass trauma in civil wars or genocide
5. Policies and Assistance Program for sustainable development for the prevention and conflict managements while implanting global health projects, professional insertion and psychosocial rehabilitation of population victims of civil wars and terrorism.
6. Prevention policy against humanitarian disasters caused by the wrecks of the Mediterranean sea by migrants from the South to the North Countries
7. Awareness, Information and Educational Programs for the sustainable development of youth in distress in developing countries face to the perilous risks of blindly migration to developed countries
8. Migrations, Wars, Trauma and expansion of HIV pandemic a real public health problem facing the ignorance and denial of populations and health policies
9. Causes of the great migrations of the 21st century in the world and their impact on global public health and sustainable development
10. The inventory of the devastating effects of civil wars on the public health of populations in developing countries
V. Migration, Mental health and Human rights:

1. Improving human rights and Global health for Children and Women among migrants and refugees in developing and developed countries
2. Innovation in the Implementation of Psychotraumatology and Mediation eclectic approaches for Peace markers in our communities
3. Global humanitarian medicine a need for migrants and refugees and human rights
4. Meeting mental health need for migrants and refugees in Forensic psychiatry, a new challenge for human rights
5. Human rights, Social Policy, Refugees, Ethics and Culture
6. Clinical futures of PTSD and Diversity (ethnical minorities, religion, Gender, etc.)
7. The impact of war trauma on the overall mental health of the refugees in developed countries
8. The impact of war trauma on the overall mental health of refugees in developing countries
9. Strategic Plan in supporting mental health of refugees in developed countries, the case of Switzerland
10. Strategic Plan in supporting refugees’ mental health in the European Union
11. Strategic Plan in supporting mental health of war and terrorism trauma victims in the European Union (France, Belgium, Germany, Space, Italy, Greece, etc.)
12. Mental Health Act and human rights of refugees in developed countries
13. Mental Health Act and support for war trauma in developing countries
14. Receiving, selection and distribution of asylum seekers in Switzerland and the European Union
15. Child and Adolescent victims of war, trauma, what challenges in social integration, academic and professional learning
16. Migration, mental health and poverty, an underestimated problem in the school and professional failures and dropout from children and teenagers among the refugees and migrants
17. Multidisciplinary intervention supports and coordination for the return of refugees and asylum seekers not accepted.
VI. Mental health, Médiation and Conflict management:

1. Moving towards Mediation and alternative justice face to violence behaviors among migrants and refugees.
2. Transcultural Research and Education on Psychotraumatology and Mediation
3. Impact of Media on Wars and Terrorism and in management and prevention of Conflicts
4. Genocide, psychological trauma and Mediation
5. Community Interpreting, Social Mediation and Human Rights
6. The impact of psychological trauma on mediation process
7. Violence and Family Mediation in divorce situation among refugees and migrant, transcultural approaches
8. Mediation and conflict management in civil wars or in peace period, is also a matter of Mental health
9. War crimes, Human Rights between Mediation and Reconciliation and social therapy
10. Mediation, Mobbing and Psychotraumatology at Workplace, how to help refugees and migrants?
11. Social mediation and violence prevention in the community among the victims and survivors of wars
12. School Mediation and prevention of violence among children and adolescent for refugees
13. Community Mediation and crime prevention in urban communities in high risk
14. Impact of Mediation in the management and prevention of domestic violence among refugees
15. Support program of Psychotraumatology and Mediation of war crime victims
16. The impact of the eclectic approach of Psychotraumatology and Mediation in the perception of trauma and behavioral change obtained after treatment of the victims of civil war trauma
17. Assessing the impact of tele-psychiatry in Psychotraumatology and Mediation in training and support for communities, regions and countries with limited resources
18. Innovation in mental health care and mediation among young people and communities affected and the prevention of radicalization in the world today
19. Innovation in hospitality and management plan of refugee and migrants suffering of overall health problems in Canada
20. Current situation on mental health in Rwanda, 20 years after the genocide
22. Cultural Resilience, a Lever in Mediation and Conflict management between victims and offenders

NB: The official languages of the conference are English and French